

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 19, 2018

Perkins students successfully compete at national theater competition

Perkins Township – Eight Perkins students competed as part of the 32-member Caryl Crane Youth Theater Competition Team at the Junior Theater Festival in Atlanta, Georgia, January 13-14, 2018. The group won their category and performed on the main stage in front of a live audience of approximately 10,000 people.

Perkins High School student Josh Eastlake; Briar Middle School students Taylor Ohly, Ben Parnell, Katelyn Showalter, Kaydee Streng, and Kelsey Swain; and Meadowlawn Intermediate School students Caitlyn Parnell and Annabelle Wadsworth performed an abridged version of Disney's "The Lion King Jr" with the competition team.

The Carol Crane Youth Theater team competed among 119 teams comprised of over 5700 students from across the country.

###

The Caryl Crane Youth Theater is a non-profit community organization that provides tuition free, theatrical training to students aged 6 - 18 through BGSU Firelands.